Turn Managers into Leaders

The Dilemma

- Growth is outpacing the ability to grow strong leaders.
- You lack the time or ability to get your managers to the next level.
- Prior efforts to build a leadership team, have not produced satisfying results.

The Answer

- A three-month intensive training based on the fundamental skills needed to be a great leader.
 - Fieldwork assignments help participants practice using these tools.
 - Each session gives tools to apply those concepts immediately in real-time.
 - Each session is focused on one topic and a few key concepts.
 - Live video discussion with a LeaderSkills Coach to deepen learning.
 - Online videos and guides deliver the core material. Participants watch and read on their own schedule.
- Your answer to most growth challenges is, "We don't have anyone to lead that."
 - You cannot focus on strategic activities, because you are busy with tactical tasks.
